ALWAYS Night For Johnnie Riley.

Poor Johnnie Riley, the 13-year-old deaf, dumb and blind colored boy, who was sent to one of the state institutions at Columbus, Wednesday, has been probably as unfortunate as it is possible for a human being to be. Until he was nine years old, Johnnie was as healthy as any other lad. He played one-old-cat, gray wolf, marbles for "keeps" and other games of Young America. But one day an innocent-appearing case of measles seized the lad. Pneumonia followed, and when the two diseases left the boy, they left behind terrible remembrances. Eternal night, total deafness and practically eternal silence was the result of the vengeance which they bequeathed the unfortunate lad. About this time the father died and the boy was taken by his grandmother, a woman of very moderate means.

He has lived for the past four years with his grandmother in an old house at 129 Livingston st. He has shown a remarkable brightness. He spent his time in making boxes, little beds and similar articles. He was handicapped in his labors by the limited number of nails and after he had made one article he would immediately take out the nails and use them in making another. About four weeks ago he was in Cleveland in a hospital. He had been sent there to see if something could not be done to restore his sight, but the doctors were unable to help him, and he was brought back to Akron. While in the hospital his cot was next to the cot of a lad who had a broken leg. Johnnie felt the splints on the other boy's leg and when he returned home he amused himself by putting his leg in boards and keeping it in a rigid position for hours. He will have a special teacher at Columbus.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant Congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Over-worked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by C. B. Harper & Co.

SMOKER.

Clark, of Pittsburg, and First Baseman Tenny, of Boston, have been indefinitely suspended by the board of control of the National League for engaging in a fist fight on the Pittsburg grounds. John T. Brush, who is president of the board, has wired James A. Hart of the action.

LOOKS BAD FOR BRACKEN.
Jack Bracken has experienced a great fall since the time when he was tried out in Cleveland in a base ball game, which landed him in a position on the Cleveland team. His many Kent friends were with him there, and when he won handsily and kept his head he was carried about on the shoulders of his delighted fellow-townsmen. He started in for a season of professional ball, but was hit repeatedly, and soon seemed to lose the fine edge of his work, which had first made him too big for the Kent team. This season Bracken has been with the Milwaukee team, but his work has been very poor, and his pitching wild. It is predicted that Bracken will soon be out of professional base ball.

Washer is more than making good as a pitcher with the University of West Virginia base ball team. His steady record of wins has made him popular and has also gone far toward the goal which he is seeking, which is a trial and a position in one of the larger professional teams. At Madison, Wis., on Wednesday of this week, "Buck" pitched a game which resulted in victory for his team over the University of Wisconsin by a score of 11 to 9.

Annual Memorial Day Excursion to Conneaut

The annual Decoration Day excursion of the Maccabees will this year be run to Conneaut Lake, a beautiful little body of water just over the line of Pennsylvania. A better place for fishing cannot be found.

In fact it is an ideal resort for an excursion, abounding in all the usual attractions of such a place. The committee has been active and nothing has been left undone that will contribute to the pleasure of all who go. Among other attractions there will be a base ball game for the championship of this section.
